(g) Faculty Development Programmes in Law: Conduct joint faculty development programmes, workshops, and academic training to strengthen legal education.

(h) Joint Conferences on Contemporary Legal Issues: Co-organize conferences, seminars, and symposiums on emerging national and international legal issues.

(i) Joint Certificate Courses: Develop and offer joint certificate programmes in specialized and emerging areas of law.

Each collaborative activity shall be governed by separate written agreements specifying objectives, deliverables, timelines, financial terms, and responsibilities.

3. COORDINATION AND IMPLEMENTATION

(a) Each Party shall designate a Liaison Officer/Coordinator to facilitate communication, planning, execution, and monitoring of collaborative activities under this MoU.

(b) The Parties may constitute Joint Working Committees or Task Forces to oversee specific projects or initiatives.

(c) All activities under this MoU shall be implemented in accordance with the academic policies, statutory requirements, and regulations of the respective Parties and their governing authorities.

4. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

(a) This MoU does not create any financial obligation on either Party unless expressly agreed in writing.

(b) Financial arrangements for specific activities, including cost-sharing, honoraria, travel, accommodation, infrastructure, and other expenses, shall be mutually decided and documented through separate agreements or project-specific MoUs.

(c) Each Party shall bear its own costs unless otherwise agreed in writing.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

(a) Intellectual Property (IP) arising from collaborative activities under this MoU shall be jointly owned or allocated in accordance with the terms specified in the relevant project agreements, applicable laws, and institutional policies.

(b) Neither Party shall use the other Party's name, logo, trademarks, or branding without prior written consent.

(c) Publication of joint research outcomes shall appropriately acknowledge the contributions of both Parties.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

(a) Each Party agrees to maintain confidentiality of all proprietary, confidential, or sensitive information disclosed during the course of collaboration under this MoU.

(b) Confidential information shall not be disclosed to third parties without prior written consent of the disclosing Party, except where required by law.

(c) These obligations shall survive the termination or expiry of this MoU.

7. USE OF NAME AND LOGO

Neither Party shall use the name, logo, trademark, or insignia of the other Party in any publication, advertisement, or promotional material without prior written approval.

8. DURATION AND TERMINATION

(a) This MoU shall come into effect from the date of its signing and shall remain valid for a period of five (5) years, unless terminated earlier by either Party.

(b) Either Party may terminate this MoU by giving three (3) months' written notice to the other Party.

(c) Termination shall not affect ongoing activities already agreed upon unless mutually decided otherwise.

9. AMENDMENTS

This MoU may be amended or modified only by mutual written consent of both Parties through duly signed addenda.

10. NON-EXCLUSIVITY

This MoU is non-exclusive and does not restrict either Party from entering into similar agreements with other institutions or organizations.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for failure or delay in performance due to events beyond reasonable control including natural disasters, war, epidemics, government actions, or other unforeseen circumstances.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this MoU shall be resolved amicably through mutual consultation and negotiation. If unresolved, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration as per mutually agreed procedures and applicable laws.

13. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This MoU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws applicable in the respective jurisdictions of the Parties.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This MoU constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior communications, negotiations, or agreements, whether written or oral.
