 - d) Joint research projects;
 - e) Advanced training and capacity building of UNASMAN and IAIN Curup faculty members.
- 2 – The cooperation foreseen in this protocol will include, in a more specific way, namely:
 - a) Institutional exchanges of faculty, students and researchers of the partner institutions in order to participate in a variety of higher education and/or research and professional development activities;
 - b) The development of joint research projects in the areas of dan social sciences;
 - c) Development of advanced training and capacity building of teachers in research, pedagogical innovation, and technological development.

SECOND CLAUSE

PROTOCOL'S IMPLEMENTATION

- 1 – In order to implement the present protocol, the necessary actions shall be defined and executed in specific agreements for each of the matters foreseen in the previous clause or others that the Contracting Parties consider to be intrinsically correlated, which will include the respective work plans, to be agreed in writing between the Parties, in terms that comply with that set forth herein.
- 2 – The actions to be developed based on this cooperation protocol will be coordinated by both institutions, according to the area of action in which the actions are inserted.

THIRD CLAUSE

COORDINATION

- 1 – UNASMAN and IAIN Curup shall designate a coordinator, for each Grantor, to supervise and facilitate the implementation of this protocol. The coordinators, working with other competent administrators at their respective institutions, shall:

- a) Promote academic collaboration, both with faculty and students, as well as researchers, for studies and research purposes;
 - b) Act as main contacts for individual and group activities, plan and coordinate all activities within their institutions as well as with the partner institution;
- 2 – UNASMAN designates as Coordinator of this cooperation protocol Dr. Hj. Chuduriah Sahabuddin, M.Si., and IAIN Curup designates as Coordinator of this cooperation protocol Prof. Dr. Idi Warsah, M.Pd.I, to ensure and coordinate the development and conduct of joint activities. The Coordinators will be the contact through which each Institution can present proposals to carry out joint activities.
- 3 – The Coordinators will also be responsible for evaluating the activities developed under this protocol, in respect for the practices established for such purposes in each Institution.

FOURTH CLAUSE

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The UNASMAN and IAIN Curup determine that all financial conditions related to the different projects to be developed shall be negotiated and mutually established, case by case, in the respective specific agreements to be signed.

FIFTH CLAUSE

MOBILITIES

- 1 – The exchange of students shall normally last one or two semesters, and any extension shall be agreed upon between the participants and the parties. In specific cases the duration may be less than one semester.
- 2 – The exchange period for lecturers and researchers will be defined according to each situation and should be of mutual interest.
- 3 – Applications should be submitted through the candidates' home institutions.
- 4 – The academic performance of the students will be evaluated by the lecturers or researchers of the host institution, according to the standards in force, unless explicitly agreed otherwise.
- 5 – The recognition of the students' training credits will be the responsibility of the home institution.
- 6 – In order to be considered at the host institutions, applicants must submit all the required documentation. The required documentation and instructions will be part of the information package that will be available at each institution for interested candidates.

- 7 – The students shall remain enrolled at their home institutions, where they shall pay all fees and tuition fees and shall be exempt from payment of normal fees and tuition fees at the host institutions.

SIXTH CLAUSE

COSTS

- 1 – Expenses for accommodation, transport, as well as those of a personal nature shall be the responsibility of lecturers, students and researchers.
- 2 – Within the scope of this protocol, it is mandatory that lecturers, students and researchers have a valid national health insurance for the period of the activities.
- 3 – The host institutions shall assist the visitor, as far as possible, in academic matters.

SEVENTH CLAUSE

- 1 – The Parties agree that, for the purposes of this cooperation protocol, all information contained in the following is considered confidential:
 - a) In this cooperation protocol;
 - b) Disclosed by UNASMAN in relation to this cooperation protocol, including before its signature;
 - c) Disclosed by IAIN Curup in relation to this cooperation protocol, including before its signature;
 - d) Any other proprietary information of UNASMAN, marked "confidential", which is by nature confidential, is disclosed in circumstances of confidence, or which IAIN Curup should reasonably understand to be treated confidentially.
- 2 – The terms contained in this clause shall survive the termination by any means of this cooperation protocol and shall apply for a period of five (5) years after the termination thereof, or five (5) years after the completion of the last activities carried out under it, whichever is later.

NINETH CLAUSE

PROHIBITIONS ON EMPLOYMENT

Under this Protocol and the respective specific agreements, no employment relationship shall be established between the Grantors and the lecturers, students and researchers carrying out the respective activities under the terms of these Agreements.

TENTH CLAUSE

DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 1 – This Protocol shall enter into force upon signing and shall be in force for five years, unless previously terminated by any of the Grantors.
- 2 – The termination by one Grantor shall be carried out upon written notification to the other Grantor at least ninety (90) days prior to the effective date of such termination, always respecting the previous commitments undertaken. If such notification is made, this Protocol shall be terminated:
 - a) At the end of such ninety (90) days; or
 - b) When all teachers, students or researchers carrying out activities under this cooperation protocol and the respective specific agreements terminate those activities.
- 3 – The termination does not generate any penalty for any of the Grantors and neither UNASMAN nor IAIN Curup shall be liable to the other for any losses that may arise therefrom.

ELEVENTH CLAUSE

INDEMNITY AND EXEMPTION OF GUARANTEES

- 1 – The UNASMAN undertakes to indemnify, and hold harmless IAIN Curup, its rectory, administrators, employees and any agents against any and all claims, actions, liabilities, damages, judicial or other claims, costs and expenses of every nature and kind that IAIN Curup may incur at any time, arising from UNASMAN's failure to comply with its obligations under this protocol and subsequent agreements and/or negligent performance of its obligations under this protocol or subsequent agreements.
- 2 – IAIN Curup undertakes to indemnify, and hold harmless UNASMAN, its administrators, directors, officers, employees and any agents against any and all claims, actions, liabilities, damages, judicial or other claims, costs and expenses of every nature and kind that UNASMAN may incur at any time, arising from the failure of IAIN Curup to comply with its obligations under this protocol and subsequent agreements and/or negligent performance of its obligations under this protocol or subsequent agreements.

TWELVETH CLAUSE

AMENDMENTS

- 1 – The present cooperation protocol may be amended, in writing, by mutual consent of the Parties.
- 2 – The amendments, always agreed upon by the Parties, shall be implemented by means of addenda and shall enter into force on the date of signature of said instrument by both Parties.
- 3 – The amendment shall be preceded by a proposal, to be presented at least 60 working days prior to the end of its validity, based on concrete reasons that justify the extension.

THIRTEENTH CLAUSE

NOTIFICATIONS

Any notification required by, or relative to, the present Cooperation Protocol shall be made in writing and delivered to the other Party by personal delivery, registered post or email.

FOURTEENTH CLAUSE

DOUBTS AND OMISSIONS

Any situations not foreseen in the present protocol, as well as any doubts arising from its application, shall be resolved by a joint decision of the Contracting Parties.

FIFTEENTH CLAUSE

THE APPLICABLE LAW

- 1 – In all that is not expressly regulated by the present Cooperation Protocol, the Parties are expressly subject to Indonesian law by virtue of its execution.
- 2 – Should any dispute arise in relation to this cooperation protocol, the Parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction and authority of the courts.

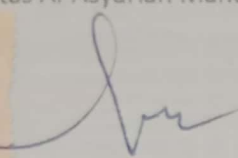

And for being in agreement with the above content and conditions, the Parties sign the two (02) copies of this protocol, which the Parties acknowledge as authentic, each one remaining for each of the Parties.
